Letter from the President

Dear CDH Community,

This past school year was marked with remarkable individual achievements and faculty milestones, as well as with unprecedented grief. I would like to share with you just a glimpse of how this past year unfolded at Cretin-Derham Hall.

All of us in the CDH community were deeply saddened by the deaths of three students: 9th grader Mac Greeman, junior Max Lowell, and Ben Mueller '14. We continue to keep these students, their families, and all of our deceased alumni/ae and friends in our thoughts and prayers.

Three highly-respected teachers retired this past year: Tom Cody '70, Charlotte Hennessy, and Brian Lundell. We are indebted to them for their service and dedication to CDH, their students, and their exceptional contributions to our Math Department.

After 19 years of ministry to our CDH community, both in the classroom and as a member of the Campus Ministry team, Fr. Phil Dreckman, SJ, is now retired. We thank him for his service.

Cretin-Derham Hall launched CASA, a unique program that connects students and adults through activities designed to intentionally promote the core values of CDH. The goal of CASA is to provide a structure in which every student in our school community knows that he/she is recognized and valued. I would like to extend my sincere thanks to Amy Bellus and Jack Kreitzer for their outstanding work on CASA.

He also coordinated the production of a CD, God is Everywhere, that features several CDH students and several compositions that David composed specifically for the CDH community, including Mass of Christ, Our Hope; One Heart, One Mind; and Be A Blessing. Ellen Larson '14 is the composer of one of the featured songs, I Believe I Shall See. David also received the prestigious 2014 Emmaus Award for Excellence in Catechesis at the annual National Catholic Educational Association Conference and Expo.

Jim O'Neill '74 retired as Cretin-Derham Hall's baseball coach, capping off a stellar 18-year baseball coaching career. Seventy-three percent of the student body participated in one (or more) MSHSL-sponsored sport last year. Fifty-eight student-athletes were named All-Conference in 28 varsity sports. Girls Volleyball and Girls Lacrosse earned Suburban East Conference championship titles. Football, Boys Hockey, Girls Hockey, Boys Basketball and Baseball finished in 2nd place in the Conference. Boys Basketball and Girls Golf won the Section Championship and finished 4th and 7th in the state, respectively. Eleven student-athletes advanced to state tournaments as individual competitors. Sixteen student-athletes received All-State honors. Several students were named Pioneer Press Student Athletes of the Week. Eight student-athletes signed letters of intent to play NCAA or NAIA Division I or II athletics.

Senior Megan Linder '14 and sophomore Brieasha Hunter earned enough points to finish in 2nd place in team points at the Girls State Track and Field Meet. Brieasha won the 100 and 400 Meter Dash and finished in 2nd in the 200 Meter Dash. Megan was the champion in the 200 Meter Dash and 2nd in the 100 and 400 Meter Dash. Megan ended her prep career with three state titles (2012 and 2013 in the 400 Meter and 2014 in the 200 Meter) and earned All-State honors ten times.

Our Campus Ministry team organized numerous prayer services and Masses throughout the year, helping all of us grow in our faith.

So many events at Cretin-Derham Hall simply would not be possible without the continued support of our Parents' Association. All of us at CDH are indebted to this group for their dedication, creativity, and enthusiasm.

And finally, in April the announcement was made that Frank Miley has been selected as the President of CDH effective at the end of this school year. Frank is currently serving as the Executive Vice President of CDH, and I am confident that the school will be in very capable hands under his leadership for many years to come.

Thank you for your continued support of Cretin-Derham Hall! May God bless you always.

Sincerely,

Richard R. Engler
President

Letter from Development

Dear Alumnae, Alumni, Parents, Faculty, and Friends,

The report you are reading is the result of several people's efforts and literally hundreds of hours of work writing, generating reports, proofreading, and re-proofreading. We want this report to be perfect and not to miss a single name. Sincerely, we dread the email or phone call that points out an inaccuracy in our reporting. I apologize in advance if we have inadvertently missed a name. We are grateful to all of our benefactors and want this report to reflect our appreciation accurately.

During the last fiscal year ending June 30, 2014, over 4100 benefactors made a decision to invest financially in the mission and values of Cretin-Derham Hall. For this we are truly grateful! Whether you call it stewardship, paying it forward, investing in our future, charitable giving or philanthropic support, we consider it a vote of confidence. Your support helps us invest in our students, our faculty, and advance our mission. Without this support it would be impossible to accomplish all we are able to do and still charge one of the lowest tuitions for secondary education in our archdiocese. Thank you for the role you play in the remarkable work that touches the lives and hearts of our students.

I am truly honored and humbled to be selected as the next President of Cretin-Derham Hall. I do not take this responsibility lightly and will work hard to continue the mission set forth by our sponsors, the Christian Brothers and the Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondelet. The transition process has begun, and I am soaking in all the knowledge and information I can before my good friend and colleague, Dick Engler, retires on June 30, 2015. This process is truly a luxury for me and our entire community.

For nearly a quarter century Cretin-Derham Hall has benefited from the visionary leadership of Dick Engler. The impact of Dick's exemplary work can be seen in the transformation of our academic offerings, increased student achievement, state of the art academic and co-curricular facilities, and financial health and wellbeing that will secure our future for the next generation. The achievements of the past 25 years are nothing short of remarkable!

The crowning jewel of Dick's tenure has been the success of the Lord, the Work is Yours! Endowment Campaign. Recently, CDH surpassed $42,000,000 in commitments to this campaign, and we have increased our goal to $45,000,000. The campaign will conclude on June 30, 2015, Dick's last day of work at CDH. During the next ten months we will be soliciting gifts in Dick's honor to recognize the significant accomplishments of his work. As an incentive to give generously to this initiative, we have secured a number of gifts that will match all new or increased gifts dollar for dollar. As supporters of Dick and his legacy, we hope that you might make this a priority.

Humbly, we thank you for your generous support and promise to be good stewards of your gifts as we work together to advance the mission and values of Cretin-Derham Hall.

Gratefully,

Frank M. Miley, J.D.

Dear Cretin-Derham Hall Community,

As I reflect on the past year, I can only marvel at Cretin Derham Hall's continued growth, all achieved while preserving our proud traditions. I have had the pleasure of knowing our President, Dick Engler, as a student, a parent, and as Board Chair of CDH.

This past year Dick announced his retirement effective at the end of this school year. Dick has been a source of vision, stability, and growth for Cretin-Derham Hall for over a quarter of a century. As a member of the graduating class of 1991, ours was the first class to attend all four years of the merged schools of Cretin and Derham Hall. Little did we know as young men and women that we would be embracing the traditions of two wonderful Catholic schools and building the foundation for the amazing school that we have today.

Dick Engler was the right leader at the right time to create the pathway for CDH after the merger. What the CDH community has accomplished under his leadership is simply remarkable. Our academic programs continue to be innovative, keeping our students competitive and prepared for their futures; the campus and facilities are second to none; the Athletic Department continues to compete at the highest level with great success; our Fine Arts Department enjoys record participation; and our fiscal footprint is exceptionally solid.

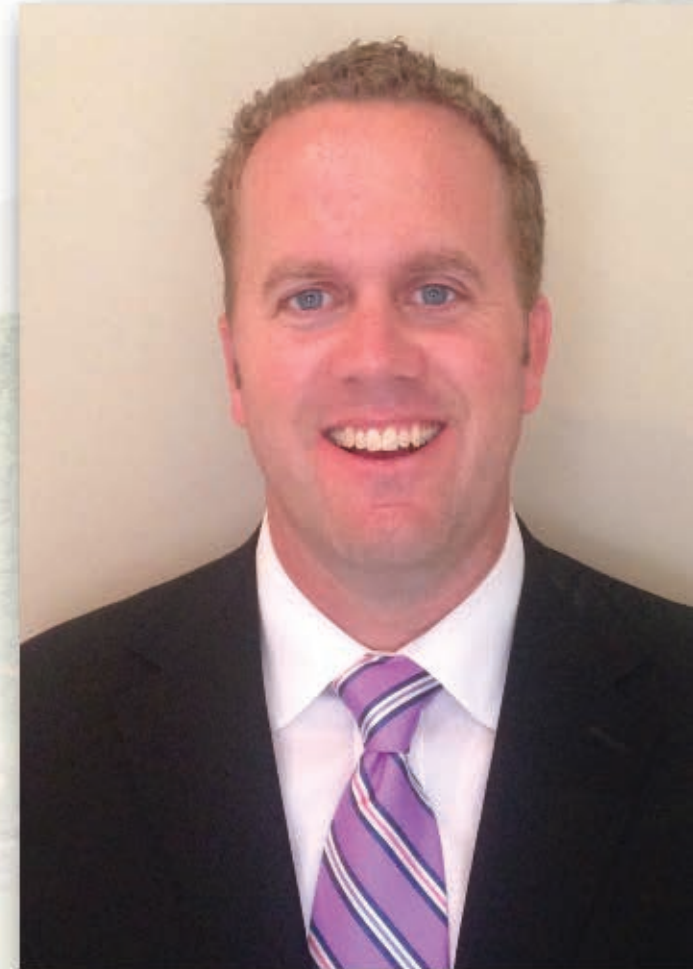

Looking to the future, the CDH Board of Directors created a Transition Committee to search for Dick's replacement. Following a transparent and thorough process with our board and our founding sponsors, the Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondelet and the Brothers of the Christian Schools, a unanimous decision was made, and Frank Miley was selected as the school's next President. Throughout the interview process, Frank displayed that he truly practices and lives the mission and values of the Sisters and the Brothers in his daily life. We are very fortunate to have Frank leading our school into the future.

I have witnessed the values, integrity, and respect instilled by CDH displayed by everyone involved in the transition process. The entire CDH community has much to be proud of. Please join me in thanking Dick Engler for his amazing leadership for the past 25 years and in welcoming Frank Miley as our next President. Our future is bright!

Sincerely,

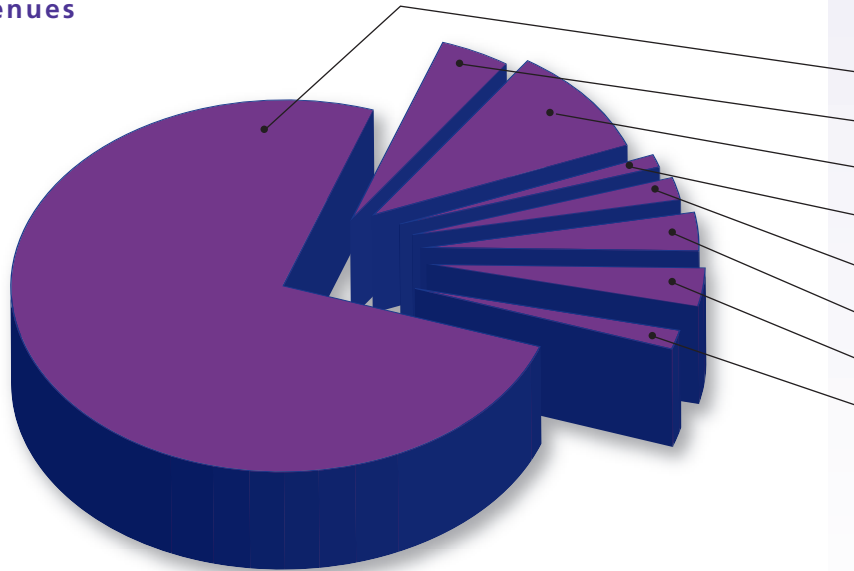

Kevin Dolan '91

Commencement Remarks - Tim Spika

Religion teacher Tim Spika and senior Alex Mongin were selected as the speakers at the commencement exercises held for the Class of 2014 at the Cathedral of Saint Paul in May 2014. Both gave heartfelt remarks that were well-received by those in attendance. Their remarks have been reproduced here for the entire CDH community.

In a few moments you will rush out those doors and take the first steps on that road to the rest of your lives. Looking out at you now, I can't help but think of a quote from the book Tuesday's with Morrie: "So many people walk around with a meaningless life. They seem half-asleep, even when they're doing things they think are important." I wonder what will make you different. We've heard it said that experience is the best teacher. If so, then what have your experiences at CDH, especially this year, taught you about living a meaningful life?

On that unforgettable day in November, we gathered in the Auxiliary Gym to honor the lives of classmates, who had died that same weekend. On my way to the gym I couldn't help but be struck by the complete and utter silence in the hallways. How can 1,400 people move through the school without making a sound? If you were there that day, you know exactly what I mean. That silence taught us several lessons. First of all, the dear neighbor we often mention at CDH is not simply found in the far off lands you visited, like El Salvador or Guatemala. Nor is that neighbor only found in the nursing homes in Camden, N.J. or at the gates of Fort Benning, Ga. where you cried out "No mas, no more." The neighbor isn't only in prison in Lino Lakes or at Dorothy Day, just a few short blocks from this Cathedral.

What we learned in November is that the dear neighbor is sitting next to us, right now. The dear neighbor is each one of us. Secondly, we learned that those distinctions that are so easily created in our school, society and world, those distinctions that seem so important, are really not significant at all. That day in November, distinctions disappeared. Teacher or student: didn't matter. Female or male, black or white, gay or straight, honors or college prep: didn't matter. We were all affected because we are all connected. We learned that our prayer about God and the dear neighbor, the same prayer you sang at mass this morning, and the same prayer to which you responded just a few minutes ago, is not simply a nice two-word, fill-in-the-blank, almost-automatic response, but it is at the center of what we absolutely need as people. For on that day, we did love without distinction.

On those freezing days in January on retreat at Dunrovin, Koinonia, or in Wisconsin, you took off your masks and opened your hearts to your classmates. You learned that everyone has a story, that our judgments about people are usually inaccurate, and that your class has many amazing people. You returned determined to get to know your classmates better and to be more understanding and empathetic people.

Your service placements and your Action Projects in April brought you face to face with life in our community. Whether working with grade school children as reading buddies, walking Hennepin Ave. to get a better understanding of human trafficking, working at shelters, learning about nursing home abuse or teenage homelessness, you learned there is great value in giving to others.

In May you heard senior speeches. You learned that it's the little things in life that really matter. So many of you admitted coming to this school lonely and afraid, unsure of yourselves and uncertain about life. But here you found friends who accepted you and welcomed you, so much so that the loneliness and fear disappeared. That simple act of acceptance or a simple invitation to eat lunch together not only changed lives, in some cases you know it saved lives. And you, Class of 2014, you did that.

So, now it's your choice whether you want to join the people who walk around with a meaningless life or if you want to inject meaning into your life in ways that your experiences here have taught. Speaking on behalf of our entire faculty, staff, and administration, I ask that as you head out those doors tonight and officially leave Cretin-Derham Hall, show us that Cretin-Derham Hall will never leave you. Show us that you will be guided by the knowledge that our unique stories make each person special and that we are all connected. Show us you will give to others and be people of understanding, empathy, and love, for these qualities will enrich your lives as they have enriched your years here, especially your senior year, and show us that you will do all of this in a way you now know is possible: without distinction.

Congratulations Class of 2014, you are truly phenomenal people. We wish you the best of luck. We are proud of you, we love you, and we pray that God will bless all of you with meaningful lives.

Thank you.

Commencement Remarks - Alex Mongin

Welcome to my family home!

Family: father, mother, sister, brother.

Also, sister-in-law; friend-who's-like-a-brother; stepmother; grandfather who raised you; half-sister; baby nephew; CASA mom. You get it. Family isn't just defined by blood, or paper, or by the people who share four walls with you. It's defined by the people who make you feel at home. And home, my friends, is right here, right among these ranks, our family.

Everyone has many families. Your friends, your team, your actual relatives all make up some of these families. The family that is on our minds tonight is this one. This family has been through a lot together. We've been through the Values class, the scariest thing to happen to our freshman-year selves. We fought through the battleground which the Link becomes every passing time. And we've been part of dozens of awesome CASA meetings. These things were endearing in the same way that technologically-challenged teachers are endearing as they tried to figure out how to use their Apple TVs.

But seriously, family is what makes us tighter. Losing family makes it hurt that much more, but family also makes losses a lot easier to bear. When we lost Ben Mueller, and Max Lowell, and Mac Greeman this year, we lost family. But we also came together in a beautiful way. Communities around us felt the effects. Heads turned and hearts were lifted to the tune of FOE, Family Over Everything.

Only our class embraces family so much that we would make a hashtag out of it. Only our class values community so much that we were able to bring back the PepFest. Only our class could have successfully heralded in the new era of CASA. And only our class can properly send off CDH President Richard Engler as he prepares for his last hurrah.

Only our class was able to do all this, because we are one of the kindest, most hard working, and most loving group of people to pass through these halls. A teacher once told me that ours was one of the "huggiest" classes she's ever seen in her many years of teaching. We showed everyone what it really means to love, and that won't be soon forgotten. As our legacy will live on, so will our memories.

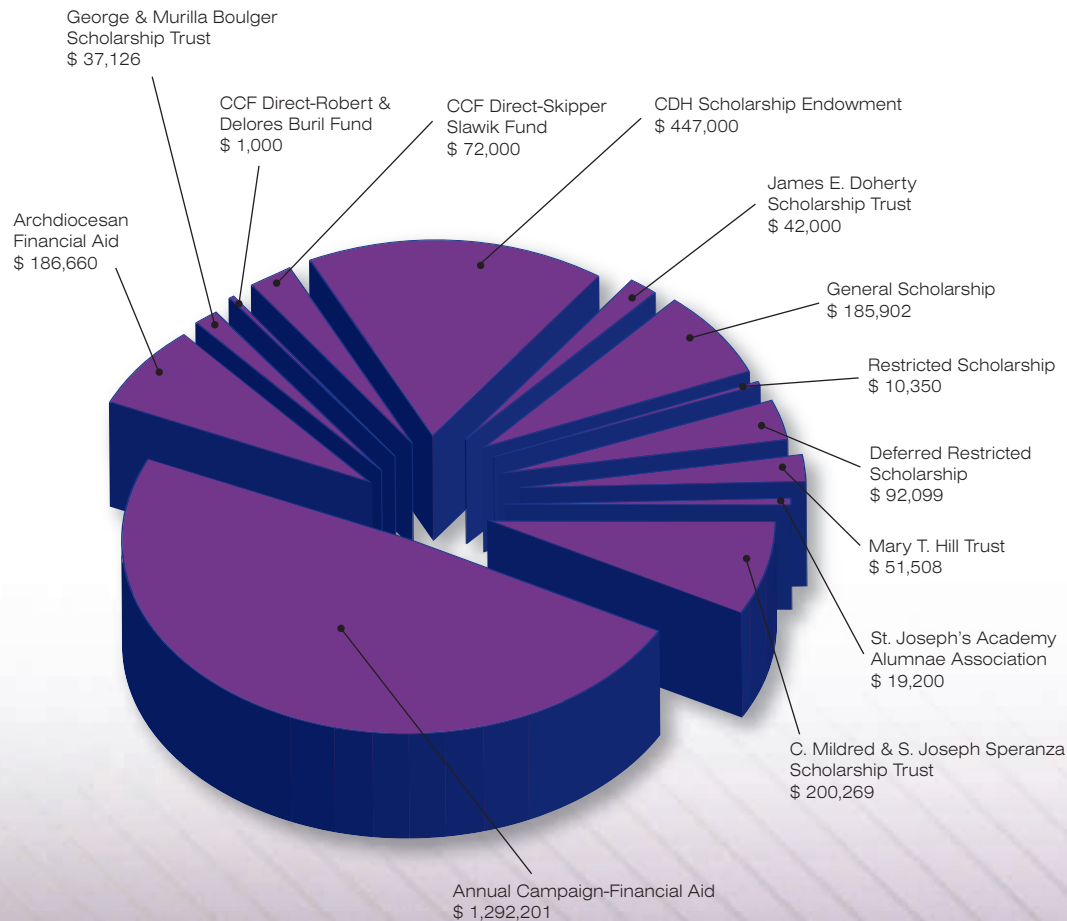

Ben should be graduating today, and in a way he is. We carry his memories with us so he'll never be forgotten. And although there is one less cap and gown, there are hundreds of hearts that are more blessed because of him. Ben, I hope you'd be proud to call us your classmates, and more importantly, I hope you'd be proud to call us your family, because we are beyond proud to call you a part of ours.

CDH is a fierce community filled with awe-inspiring strength. We have been blessed to be a part of it, and as much as we hate to admit it, we'll all miss it. We'll miss the warm, sun-drenched rooms; the crowded halls; the alumni/ae who have always kept an eye on us from their pictures lining the hallways. We'll miss the teachers we deemed to be sassy and the teachers we deemed to be saints. We'll miss all the late starts.

It's impossible to think that next year it will be our class picture in the hallway, but it will be, and we will be long gone. I like to keep in mind something I once heard: Life isn't what happens to people, it's what people do with what happens to them. What we've done with our time here is to create a beautiful family over the course of the last four years. That's something that we can hold on to long after we begin to refer to CDH as our alma mater. In that not so distant future, it won't matter what was said in a group chat, what shoes we wore, or who scored what point. What will matter is how everyone in our class felt and that can be described in two words: at home. If family is defined by the people who make you feel at home, than I have to thank you. Thank you for being a family.

Lifetime Members of the Good Samaritan Council have distinguished themselves through their generous philanthropic support of Cretin-Derham Hall. Like the Good Samaritan referenced by Jesus as the model of the good neighbor, they have surpassed all measures of stewardship by advancing the mission of our school through their financial support. These generous benefactors have each donated $100,000 or more since the inception of Cretin-Derham Hall.

Cretin-Derham Hall Torch Society

The mission of the Torch Society is to generate enthusiasm, involvement, and support from a new generation of leaders.

The baton must be passed to those in our community who are assuming the mantle of leadership to nurture and sustain the academic, spiritual, and co-curricular opportunities that make CDH such an outstanding school. Membership is based on engagement in the community and a history of consecutive giving. For more information, call 651-696-3319, or email pgilligan@c-dh.org.

Bishop Cretin Council

($1,000 – $2,499)

Bishop Joseph Cretin founded a school in the basement of the Cathedral in 1851. That school became Cretin High School and now, Cretin-Derham Hall. Ireland Council

($500 - $749)

The Ireland Council combines what was known as the Archbishop Ireland Society at Cretin High School and the Mother Seraphine Ireland Council at Derham Hall. John Ireland was the first Archbishop of St. Paul and a student at Bishop Cretin's school. Archbishop Ireland's sister, Mother Seraphine Ireland, was the Superior for the Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondelet at the time of Derham Hall's formation.

This program consists of voluntary financial support, provided by parents, to help bridge the gap between tuition and the cost of educating each student at Cretin-Derham Hall.

All parents are asked to participate in order to more closely meet the cost of a Cretin-Derham Hall education.

The Cretin-Derham Hall Prayer

Let us remember that we are in the holy presence of God, and let us love God and our dear neighbor without distinction.

Loving God,

Giver of Life, Sacred Friend and Tender Parent,
we know you as helper, healer and comforter.
By your generous Spirit we are forgiven and restored.

Help us to be one with You.
May that union of love lead us to serve others in acts of charity and justice.
Help us to respect not only others but all of creation so that future generations will have your gifts as well.

Drawing from our Catholic tradition of Gospel values and service, may we recognize and develop our individual gifts and talents
so that our work at Cretin-Derham Hall will empower us to go out among others with the passion and self-giving of our patrons and intercessors, St. John Baptist De La Salle and St. Joseph.

With grateful hearts we ask this in Jesus' name.
Amen.

St. Joseph, pray for us.
St. John Baptist De La Salle, pray for us.
Live Jesus in our hearts—forever.
